HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe different ways that we may use and disclose protected health information without your written authorization.

For Treatment. We may use protected health information about you to provide you with, coordinate, or manage your medical treatment or services. We may disclose protected health information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other personnel, who are involved in your medical care.

NW Dietitian LLC staff may also share protected health information about you in order to coordinate your care for such reasons as prescriptions, lab work, and x-rays.

We may use and disclose protected health information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at NW Dietitian LLC. We may use and disclose protected health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options, treatment alternatives, or health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

For Payment for Services. We may use and disclose protected health information about you so that the treatment and services you receive at NW Dietitian LLC may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party.

For example, we may need to give your health plan information about nutrition services you received at NW Dietitian LLC so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the service. We may also tell your health plan about the nutrition services you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose protected health information about you for NW Dietitian LLC health care operations, such as our quality assessment and improvement activities, case management, coordination of care, business planning, customer service, and other activities. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the facility, reduce health care costs, and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care.

For example, we may use protected health information to review our treatment and services or to evaluate the performance of the dietitian who is providing your services. We may also combine protected health information about many NW Dietitian LLC patients to decide what additional services NW Dietitian LLC should offer, what services are not needed, and whether certain treatments are effective. We may also disclose information to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, and other NW Dietitian LLC personnel for review and learning purposes.

Subject to applicable state law, the law allows or requires us to use or disclose your health information without your authorization in some limited situations for purposes beyond treatment, payment, and operations.
